

Draw of the last round of CAN 2013 qualifiers

The 15 teams of the level 1 namely ; Algeria, Angola, Burkina Faso, Cameroun, Cote d'Ivoire, Gabon, Ghana, Guinea, Guinea Equatorial, Mali, Morocco, Nigeria, Sudan, Tunisia, Zambia will be in Pot A and the 15 teams of level 2 namely, Botswana, Cap Vert, Central Africa, Ethiopia, Liberia, Libya, Malawi, Mozambique, Niger, RD Congo, Senegal, Sierra Leone, Togo , Uganda, Zimbabwe will be in Pot B and pot C will contain 2 balls: ball A and ball B

Step 1: A draw made to pick one team from Pot A

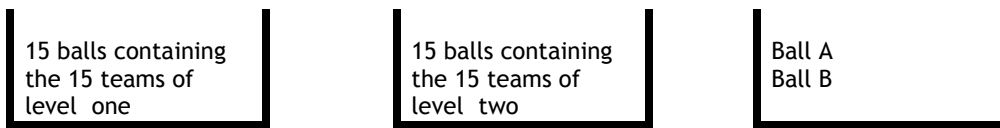

Step 2: A draw made to pick one team from Pot B

Step 3: A ball will be taken from Pot C.

If ball A is drawn first from Pot C, it means that the team drawn from pot A will play his 1st match at home and the team drawn from pot B will play his 2nd match at home.

If ball B is drawn first from pot C, it means that the team drawn from pot B will play his 1st match at home and the team drawn from pt A will play his 2nd match at home.

This operation will be repeated for 15 times to determine the 30 matches.

1 team from pot A plays against 1 team from pot B. Then if this Ball is A, Team A plays its 1st match at home. If ball A is drawn, team B plays its 1st match at home
